

PHYLLIS TICKLE

2010 THEOLOGICAL FORUM WITH PHYLLIS TICKLE

Meet Phyllis Tickle

Founding Editor of the Religion Department
Publisher's Weekly

Phyllis Tickle is the author of over two dozen books in religion and spirituality, most recently The Great Emergence, How Christianity is Changing and Why and The Words of Jesus, A Gospel of the Sayings of Our Lord. She is also the author of the notable and popular The Divine Hours series of manuals for observing fixed-hour prayer, in addition to numerous essays, articles, lectures and interviews.

Tickle, who was with Publisher's Weekly until her retirement in 2004, began her career as a college teacher and, for almost ten years, served as academic dean to the Memphis College of Art before entering full time into writing and publishing. In September 1996 she received the Mays Award, one of the book industry's most prestigious awards for lifetime achievement in writing and publishing, and specifically in recognition of her work in gaining mainstream media coverage of religion publishing. In 2007 she received a Lifetime Achievement Award from The Christy Awards "In gratitude for a lifetime as an advocate for fiction written to the glory of God." In 2004, she received the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from the Berkeley School of Divinity at Yale University. In 2009 she received an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from North Park University. A lay eucharistic minister and lector in the Episcopal Church, she makes her home in Lucy, Tennessee.
